TOUCH A LIFE

2010 SUMMER CAMP SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Over the past 69 years, thousands of children and teens have attended a week of camp at Mt. Lou San Bible camp. Countless youth have trusted Christ as Savior or made a significant commitment for godly living as a result of the unique summer camp ministry.

The Touch a Life scholarship fund has been established to insure that finances do not prevent youth from experiencing the great opportunity to hear the gospel of Jesus Christ and learn life changing truths from God's Word. Concerned individuals, businesses and churches have seen the great benefit of investing in a young person in this way.

Would you like to "Touch a Life" in the summer of 2010? You may support a camper with the entire amount of $225 or a lesser amount. In either case checks should be made payable to Mt. Lou San (all gifts to Mt. Lou San are tax-deductible).

TESTIMONIAL

Mt. Lou San Bible Camp is a great place to send your kids. I have sent my kids, grandkids, and soon great grandkids because of the positive influence, Christian teaching and examples shown by counselors and staff. I even get an additional blessing by recruiting and transporting needy kids from nearby areas. The positive influence of Mt. Lou San is reflected in listening to their conversations going to and from camp. I hear gospel related songs on the way home and discussions about Bible stories or other camp related activities. What a blessing!

The mom of one girl told me that the moment her daughter returns home from camp, the countdown begins for next year. She has attended camp for several years. Another time when I was picking up kids, a first time camper could not be found. After searching, mom found her under her bed. Finally she persuaded her to go. At the end of the week upon returning home, the girl pointed her finger at her mom and said, "Next year as soon as you get the application in the mail, please send it in. I want to go."

Needless to say, I highly recommend getting involved in Touch a Life, because God is glorified and Jesus is lifted up.
